

Wash Away

Chef'Special

Wash away, wash away
Oh, listen to the tales of this old house
A new dawn, a new day, time is on your side
Don't sweat it, don't sweat it no

Wash it with the night and Wash it with the fact that I am
Spitting with the mic in my hand Cause I have an accidental lack in micstand (he's got an accidental lack of micstand)

Ships they come, they take and bring
And the sea and the wave wash away their sin
But there's no telling about worse or better
For the truth lies deep in the drowned love letter

This time, this place
You can leave everything
There's no wrong in your way
We can be anything

Wash away, wash away
Oh, listen to the tales of this old house
A new dawn, a new day, time is on your side
Don't sweat it, don't sweat it no

Wash it with the dark and wash it with the stars that fall down
You and me are small yeah come down Hum a little something we be checking out your humsound (hum a little someth ing we be checking out your humsound)

Change of skies, change of tune
Change of pace, yeah maybe soon
But I ain't trading my place
I ain't changing my ways
Whatever step we makin' I be waiting for you to come down

But this town, this place, we can be anything

Wash away, wash away
Oh, listen to the tales of this old house
A new dawn, a new day, time is on your side
Don't sweat it, don't sweat it no

Don't worry 'bout the home
It's just somewhere to lay
Don't worry 'bout the bed
It's just somewhere to play
Don't worry 'bout it all
Cause I love 'ye today
Yeah, wash away

Step inside let it fly leave it behind
Yeah we gonna let it die give the mind reason to smile again
Wash away come with me discover the sky, discover the sky, discover the sky
Step inside let it fly leave it behind
Yeah we gonna let it die give the mind reason to smile again

Wash away come with me discover the sky
Uncover ye eyes babe uncover ye eyes

But this town, this place, we can be anything

Wash away, wash away
Oh, listen to the tales of this old house
A new dawn, a new day, time is on your side
Don't sweat it, don't sweat it no

It's just somewhere to lay
Don't worry 'bout the bed
It's just somewhere to play
Don't worry 'bout it all
Cause I love 'ye today
Yeah, wash away
