

I Should Let You Go

Chelsea Cutler

You don't believe in love, well, I don't believe in you
Ooh, ooh
I couldn't be enough, well, what am I supposed to do?
Ooh, ooh, yeah

Probably shouldn't be driving right now, yeah
With all these Benzos in my blood
Probably shouldn't be tryna talk you down
When you don't wanna wanna be loved

You told me to come over, then you told me I should go
It's colder this October, so I wait for a cab home
You know I'm not over it, tell me is it over yet?
Giving me a hundred reasons I should let you go, but

Go, but
I should let you go, but
Oh

Fell asleep with makeup on
Wishin' you're the reason that my clothes came off
And I'm so far gone
I don't even know if I know you at all

Probably shouldn't be driving right now, yeah
With all these Benzos in my blood
Probably shouldn't be trying to talk you down
When you don't wanna wanna be loved

You told me to come over, then you told me I should go
It's colder this October, so I wait for a cab home
You know I'm not over it, tell me is it over yet?
Giving me a hundred reasons I should let you go, but

Go, but
I should let you go, but
Go, but
I should let you go, but
Oh

You told me to come over then you told me I should go
It's colder this October, so I wait for a cab home
You know I'm not over it, tell me is it over yet?
Giving me a hundred reasons I should let you go, but
