

If Not Yours

Chelsea Cutler

What is love if you don't feel it when it walks out
And your chest is caving in?
Tread the line between the water and the high ground
And everywhere you've been
Cleanse me of everything, wash away what I've done
'Cause I forget what I'm living for, now that you're gone

So, tell me
How you're alright, how you're alright
While I'm seeing the whole world in hazel
How you're alright, how you're alright
While I'm here bleeding out on the table
Who am I alone? Where do broken people go?
'Cause I don't have a home anymore
I don't know what I am
I don't know what I am
If not yours

Did you mean it when you said that you were happy?
That you're ready to let go
That your days are feeling lighter, thanks for asking
That the high's worth the low
Cleanse me of everything, wash away what I've done
'Cause I forget what I'm living for, now that you're gone

So, tell me
How you're alright, how you're alright
While I'm seeing the whole world in hazel
How you're alright, how you're alright
While I'm here bleeding out on the table
Who am I alone? Where do broken people go?
'Cause I don't have a home anymore
I don't know what I am
I don't know what I am
If not yours

If not yours
If not yours
If not yours
If not yours
Give me something
If not yours
Give me something
If not yours
Give me something
If not yours

Just tell me
How you're alright, how you're alright
While I'm seeing the whole world in hazel
How you're alright, how you're alright
While I'm here bleeding out on the table
Who am I alone? Where do broken people go?
'Cause I don't have a home anymore
I don't know what I am
I don't know what I am
If not yours
