

Sad Tonight

Chelsea Cutler

My friends tell me I'm good, but
Can I feel it too?
Wanna drink his lips off
But all I taste is you, yeah
Make the most of my days
And tell myself that you're gone
I don't wanna be right out
Missing you is so wrong

It hits me like a tsunami
Mmm, I feel you over my body
Oh, yeah, hey
Hate bein' so damn honest
You have my heart, but you don't even want it
No, you don't even want it

I'll let my friends take me out
On another night to some bar I, know you never liked
Kiss somebody who's not my type
And it won't feel right

So let me be sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
Sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
Sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
'Cause it feels so right
Yeah, it feels so right

You're all over my mind, yeah
I tried to find a new muse
Can't believe what you did, no
I don't really want to
I got thoughts in my mind, yeah
And it feels so loud
Could pretend that I'm fine
But I don't really know how

It hits me like a tsunami
Oh, I feel you over my body
Oh, yeah, hey
Hate bein' so damn honest
You have my heart, but you don't even want it
No, you don't even want it

I'll let my friends take me out
On another night to some bar I, know you never liked
Kiss somebody who's not my type
And it won't feel right

So let me be sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
Sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
Sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
'Cause it feels so right
Sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
