Inside

Chely Wright

I see you
Sitting on a white bed
With every drop of water just outside your window

I hear you
Humming tunes from your head
You're smiling while you're waiting for your star

I feel you
Just about to break up
You're a little scared of everything that you know

But don't worry
Nothin's gonna change us
Don't cha know that I'm in love with everything you are

You are amazing
You are wonderful
You are small and you are big at the same time
You're still walkin'
When you want so much to fly
You have so many questions and every answer inside

You're still here
Sitting on a white bed
But maybe, then again, you're restin' in your own cloud

They're like you
Everyone you're watching
You know how it feels and they sure do need you now

You are amazing
You are wonderful
You are small and you are big at the same time
You're still walkin'
When you want so much to fly
You have so many questions and every answer inside

You are amazing
You are wonderful
You are small and you are big at the same time
You're still walkin'
When you know that you can fly
You have so many questions and every answer inside
