Someday

Chemical Vocation

I think you're ready to move Your feet are getting lighter each day Your heart says stay but your mind keeps pushing you away

You're trying hard to let go
But it kills you and your heart screams no
I know it's selfish but you have to let me go

You know what they say
What doesn't kill you makes you stronger
I think it's time to put their words to the test

I never wanted it to end up like this I can't apologize 'cause our love is gone

The other night we held hands

And gave promises about the future

Then soaked our cheeks as we flooded your apartment

Come on honey let's not look that way
Push it aside and live today
It's gonna turn out fine

I never wanted it to end up like this
I can't apologize 'cause our love is gone

Some day we will find peace you'll see Some day I swear Some way, somehow we'll make it out Some day I swear

Feels like we're running in circles We've already been here Like we're running in circles
