Bye bye bye babe

Bye bye bye babe

Bye bye bye babe

Bye bye bye babe

Bye bye bye babe

Bye bye bye babe

Bye bye bye babe

I texted you all day

But you haven't read any of them yet

You say you just saw them

You say you were too busy

Can I believe you?

I told you a hundred times

The answer is already out there

It's so obvious

Everyone but you knows, how sad

You really seem stupid right now

Why do you get prettier

Every time I see you?

My heart is expanding

Like a balloon

When I look at you

I get more and more nervous

Tell me, before I explode

Bye bye bye babe, even if you say this

No one will think you're a bad person

What's the problem?

Bye bye bye babe, if I say that

And coldly turn around

I would look like the bad guy

Bye bye bye babe

Bye bye bye babe

I met her this evening

But her face didn't look so good

She said she was bored

And had to go home

So I came here

Every time I come here

I get worse and worse

I hear about you

And I feel like exploding like a bomb

It's even more dangerous

Cuz I don't even know my heart

Tell me, before I explode

Bye bye bye babe, if I say that
And coldly turn around
I would look like the bad guy
Bye babe, even if you say this
No one will think you're a bad person
What's the problem?

Like this, you're just a fish in the fish tank
How many times do I have to tell you?
Like this, you're probably the Biggest fish out of the others
Like a whale
Nope

Bye bye bye babe, if you say that
And a few nights pass
You'll forget me, what's the problem?
The sad one is still gonna be me

Bye bye bye babe, but hold on
Bye bye bye babe, sorry, phone
Bye bye bye babe, she says she misses me
Bye bye bye babe, I'm gonna go
