On the day the flowers cruelly bloomed in full
You and I said goodbye
I cried out in my heart
Leaving behind the endlessly flowing tears
I still remember you who disappeared
I can't forget

On the day I let you go, I etched it in my heart
Endlessly, just like that

On that bright day, the day without a single cloud
I remember the day when the rain of tears fell
If I could turn back time
I know I would have held on
Every day, like this
I turn back time

The memories hold me and won't let go
I'm wandering, trapped in a cool day

On the day I let you go, I etched it in my heart
Endlessly, just like that

On that bright day, the day without a single cloud
I remember the day when the rain of tears fell
If I could turn back time
I know I would have held on
Every day, like this
I turn back time

The rain falls, I am still here
In this place where it hurt the most

If I could turn back time
I know I would have held on
Every day, like this
I turn back time, ooh
I turn back time
I turn back time
