

Arrested

Chenoa

These four walls crumble in
Why am I not caving in
There's no pillars standing strong
How does a heart keep holding on

Tried as hard as a girl could try
Opened my heart as wide as sky
No more second guessing
It's time that I confess it

I can't get arrested
I just can't get arrested
Your heart can't be persuaded
I guess I'll have to face it
I just can't get arrested

I jump straight into the fire
Every time I walk right by you
Even reason gets so confused
When my heart makes up another excuse
Time that I confess it

I can't get arrested
I just can't get arrested
Your heart can't be persuaded
I guess I'll have to face it
I just can't get arrested

I answered every question love could ask
And still your heart won't let mine pass

I can't get arrested

I can't get arrested
I just can't get arrested
Your heart can't be persuaded
I guess I'll have to face it
I just can't get arrested
