

Blank Pages

Cher Lloyd

I wanna fly where no one else has flown
But I can't understand why my feet still touch the ground
I wanna say what no one else has said
And I try and I try but my mouth won't make a sound, yeah

I know you feel like this
Sometimes everybody feels like this
I wanna feel like this, I tell myself

I wanna be brave
Don't wanna be like nobody else
Don't wanna feel sorry for myself
Not lost and faded
I wanna make change
Don't wanna leave dreams up on the shelf
I wanna tell haters "Go to hell"
Won't hide from faces
Cause I, I realize everyday starts with blank pages
I, I realize everyday starts with blank pages

Don't wanna cry, 'cause no one really knows
How it feels when you're lost and you just can't shout it out
I'm in a cage, but who really cares
And I reach and I reach and no one grabs my hand

I know you feel like this
Sometimes everybody feels like this
I wanna feel like this, I tell myself

I wanna be brave
Don't wanna be like nobody else
Don't wanna feel sorry for myself
Not lost and faded
I wanna make change
Don't wanna leave dreams up on the shelf
I wanna tell haters "Go to hell"
Won't hide from faces
'Cause I, I realize everyday starts with blank pages
I, I realize everyday starts with blank pages

Everybody feels like this
Sometimes everybody feels like shhh
I know you feel like this
Sometimes everybody feels like shhh
I know you feel like this
Sometimes everybody feels like shhh
I know you feel like this
Sometimes everybody feels like shhh

I wanna be brave (haha), don't wanna be like nobody else
Don't wanna feel sorry for myself
Not lost and faded
I wanna be changed
Don't wanna leave dreams up on the shelf
I wanna tell haters "Go to hell"
Won't hide from faces
'Cause I, I realize everyday starts with blank pages

I, I realize everyday starts with blank pages
