

I Wasn't Ready

Cher

Last night I was in heaven
Today I'm still on a cloud
In his arms I was in heaven
I didn't know what it was all about

When he walked out the hurt walked in
I guess that I just wasn't ready for love

Last night I thought it was a game
Today I feel so ashamed
If he only knew how I need him again
I know that he would come and ease my pain

When he walked out the hurt walked in
I guess that I wasn't ready for love

He said that he loved me
He told me he'd protect me
He told me he needed me
But I was too blind to see
Yeah I was too blind to see

Last night I was in heaven
Today I'm still on a cloud
In his arms i was in heaven
But it was hell when he walked out

When he walked out the hurt walked in
I guess that I wasn't ready for love
I Wasn't ready
I Wasn't ready
