

High Priority

Cherrelle

Our love has just begun
But I pride myself on knowing when it's right
Well you just might be the one
You're in my mind even when you're not in sight

You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love

My heart really hangs high
I looked at you, that's all I've got to do
Well my mind goes along for the ride
I can't stop from showing you the truth

You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love

You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love

Oh-whoa-whoa...

I hope by now you have learned
That you're my one and only concern
All the things that I say to you
Would not be said if they were not true

You're a high priority with me, yes you are
You're a high priority with me, yes you are

You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
(Important)
You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love

You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
(Nothing is more important)
You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
(Nothing is more important that your love, whoo!)

You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love

You're a high priority with me
You're a high priority with me

You're a high priority with me, yes you are

Nothing is more important than your love
You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love

You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love

You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
You're a high priority with me, yes you are
Nothing is more important than your love
