Oh, hmm yeah
The view is always that road we used to pass by
But today is somewhat new
I keep on smiling because of you

I always remember you
How many times
Have I unconsciously smiled by myself today?

Oh my sweet, sweet
Like a chocolate
Everything, everything
Together

Violet
You came into my heart
The day is just starting (starting)
And I already fell for you (fell in love)

Violet
The confession of love no one knows about
It's okay even if only you and I know (the both of us)
Another golden day
I love you violet

You, your so many charms
Every time I discover each of them
I'm falling in love everyday

Violet
I really like
Your smile that reaches inside my heart
And makes it pure

I love you
And you make me clueless
With those two eyes that stare at me intently
I'm clueless

I love you violet
You came into my heart
The day is just starting (starting)
And I already fell for you (fell in love)
