

Haxel Princess

Cherry Glazerr

Oh, there's flowers in my cup
Oh, I've had enough
You still can't walk my way
What's in there?
Is this a fair share or an unrealistic blame game?
Oh, there's gum in your hair
They all stop and stare as you shake your fist in rage
What's in there?
Is this a fair share or an unrealistic blame game?

I'm so tired of living like royalty
I don't wanna jam in here so quietly
I don't wanna jam in here so quietly

Oh, they try to stall them all
They all try to stall as they see truth coming near
Feel like a fly on the wall
Cry in the bathroom stall
They embrace your ugly sneer
They can't change your mind
It's gonna take some time
I know it's out of fear
Oh, it's all out of fear

I'm so tired of living like royalty
I don't wanna jam in here so quietly
I don't wanna jam in here so quietly
