

Johanna of the Spirits

Cherry Poppin' Daddies

I was back in New York and thinkin' of you
Saw you from my cab, a shimmering jewel
The drunk on absinthe way you see
She's a great soul in a small destiny
Demystify, yes I was always degrade
You swallowed my chocolate covered grenade
But now I see what shark eyes do
Iggy and Bob they had one too
Johanna, what is true?
I stayed in college town
And took my time to move on
My name will never move
Carved in the sidewalk here with you
I ain't Shakespeare, I speak about what I know
No angels in a whirlwind, dirt I can hold
Not a hero and I just want to pay my bills
I don't understand girls
Move on, move on...
Your disillusioned eye the day the rabbit died
I crawled into my hole, we weren't so young anymore
I stayed in college town
And took my time to move on
My name will never move
Carved in the sidewalk here with you
