I Don't Know

Cherryholmes

Don't let me fall,
Farther than you care to go,
For I'm afraid that I may find,
That my hearts fast in place but
You've altered your mind

CHORUS

Am I one and only or
Have you told me words,
I just need to hear,
Will I wake tomorrow full of sorrow and woe, I don't know.

In the dark, I used to cry,
Hopelessly seeking the light,
But now I've found one tiny ray,
And my heart wants to know would
You throw it away

CHORUS

Don't let me fall, farther
Than you care to go, for I'm Afraid, that I may find,
That my hearts fast in place
But you've altered your mind

CHORUS
I Don't Know
