Cherub

I know your dirty secrets
I knew you couldn't keep them
Your ass is hard believing in
And then I know
You put that all aside and baby girl
You're so damn fine
That I for get all of the lies you have told
I know this won't last
And I'll forget your dirty past
So for now I want to put those thoughts on hold
Cause I'm living for the moment
And all I want to do is
Touch you one more time before I go

Cause you feel so good
Hey
Cause you feel so good
Hey

Your eyes are so deceiving
That you got me here believing
All the silly lies that you have told
The future is a present
And you pretend like it's a blessing
But it only seems to make our problems grow

From the shoulders to the waist up
You know I want to take control
With our bodies in full motion
Then one more touch before I go

Your mind is so misleading
You've got me here just thinking
How your ass would look up on that pole
When really I should wonder
How the fuck you keep me crawling
And get me to bend over and fold

From the shoulders to the waist up
You know I am in control-ol
With our bodies in full motion
Then one more touch before I go

[illegible]

Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Ohh-oh-oh-oh-oh
