Cherub

We all know how the story goes
Start off young and then get old
Keep the realest inbetween
And make sure fake shit gets exposed

If there's drama in your life
Then you gotta let it go
Make sure to kiss that bitch goodbye
And send her ass off with the bros

I took some X at a party
My bro said that it would help me see
Things on a whole new level
Make me feel real special, oh man

Now that I'm high as a kite
And feel like a real awnry devil
I yelled out to my bro,
"Turn up that bass man, fuck the treble,
And the midrange too... Fuck me, fuck you."
Blow a kiss while yelling "Shout outs to the cool"

We all know how the story goes
Start off young and then get old
Keep the realest inbetween
And make sure fake shit gets exposed

If there's drama in your life
Then you gotta let it go
Make sure to kiss that bitch goodbye
And send her ass off with the bros

I like to give hugs to my friends
I like to give hugs to my foes
I like to give hugs to a foe
Keepin us alive up on the road
God damn
I said, I said, God damn

My whole thought process has changed
And the way that I do things
I feel different, but the same
Not much more, I can't explain
So, high that I'm, that I'm
On a whole new level
