

Interesting Times

Chester French

I can't believe I'm going to die one day
I can't believe we'll all be gone
I can't believe that I won't be 25 for much longer now

And it's weird this room's gonna disappear
And that somebody lived here before It's weird I live in 4 dimensions but, there might be more
But it's all
But it's all beautiful, beautiful, beautiful
There's nothing else to say
You're beautiful, you're beautiful, there's nothing
else to say

May you live in interesting times
May you live in interesting times

I can't believe this all came from dust
And that all of some people I love
I can't believe that I might just be projecting a dream

And I hope this finds you when things are good
And I hope that you're not facing loss
And I hope, yeah I hope, you find someone out there who loves you a lot
But it's all
But it's all beautiful, beautiful, beautiful
There's nothing else to say
You're beautiful, you're beautiful, there's nothing
else to say

May you live in interesting times
May you live in interesting times
