Test me
Fall Back
Into
The Great Unknown
Great Uncertainty
You're no Indigo
You're no Indigo
Indigo
Ooo, Swiftly

My minds a mausoleum
I live inside it like the high of ancient Egypt
Go on a ride and try to find my inner peace
Listening to middle eastern music
Hit the wax pen. and zen
Just tryna keep my cool
Mind flowing, smoking on bob
Hair looking like a sideshow, I started reading Kaufman
Sparkling in the mist, I be floating in the darkness
But time is an abyss that I try not to get lost in Japanese food on my plate mad authentic
Black legacy carry that with me through the cosmic
I Love Ugly on me like monk and his cloth
Got skunk in the pocket, icy so frostbit
Llightyears ahead catch me out there where the stars sit, hazing
Set the board, watch the rest fall into placement
Light the L watch me take off like a space ship
No question, I live in my thoughts lately
Don't step from the Marsh lately
