

Oblivion

Chester Watson

Yo, dreams of frugality dashed
Since new reality passed
Freelancer a lotta people deal with salary caps
I deal with travelin' fast
Just different ways of life
I'm sent from ancient times
I bet yeah, confined or stretched
Is you foldin' in the situation or tyin' it's neck
Was goin' heavy with the drugs almost compliant with death
I got these niggas mindsets down to a science I guess
Just leave 'em where they stand and I ain't tryna rest, bet
No curtains in my room the sun start shining I'm next
That's like a quarter to 7 I want a private jet
By the time I hit 27 'cause in my profession
Life expectancy, man that's about as high as it gets
Either Hawaii or Japan I need an island crib
A super titan super saiyan turn the tide cement
Aura and vibes of mist

I know the moon is where I'm from I don't know why I'm here (I don't know why I'm here)
Yeah I don't know why I'm here (I don't know why I'm here)
I know the moon is where I'm from I don't know why I'm here (I don't know why I'm here)
Yeah I don't know why I'm here (I don't know why I'm here)

Yo, check, a neutral tone villain I don't serve either side
I observe both killin' shit is weak I just distance enemies
You from St. Pete but we never had the chemistry don't try to play me
I was cakin' in the industry before my late teens
That's not to say I'm any better but I may be (ha)
So I'ma do my thing whether you love or hate me

The moon is where I'm from I'm never safe I don't know why I'm here (I don't know why I'm here)
I don't know why I'm here (I don't know why I'm here)
I'm never safe I don't know why I'm here (I don't know why I'm here)
I don't know why I'm here (I don't know why I'm here)

Are you satisfied?
Are you satisfied?
Are you satisfied?
Are you satisfied?
I know you're sad at night
Are you satisfied?
I know you're sad at night

Are you satisfied?
