

I'd like to but I can't
Make another same stance
Work hard, no shame
No weapons, don't blame
And I feel your face
Like a brother, no worries
Hurried time swallows whole
I got a wrecked voice, gotta show

We think, we heal
What we find we steal
I need direction, am I impatient
Course I'm, do we think

Do we think
I'm ashamed
I'm ashamed
I'm ashamed

Can't stop the talk
Can't look after this
Braid of life intertwines
I catch the wave and then an end
Waiting for my eye
A crazy man laughing
Many think it don't hurt
Many men don't think

We see, we heal
What we find we steal
I need direction, am I impatient
Course I'm, do we think
