

Welcome 2 the Trap

Chevy Woods

You know what this is?
Yeah. That's coke
Yes, but that's a kilo of coke
How much it's worth?
$25,000
Damn
Dang, that stang good
The shit on the street is garbage
This crud that's washed with acetone and kerosene
This is the best product
And you gonna be the only one in the street holding this $25,000
$25,000 is the street price
Of that, I get $18,000
$7,000
That's right, for every key that you move
ACE: You know I
I still got my job at the cleaners, um...
No, it's perfect, man
Because that's how everybody knows you
Forget about heroin
This is the wave of the future, baby
You crazy, man
I'm gonna give you...
An eighth of a key, okay?
Break it up
Do like you did with the rock
See me in four days, okay?

Commission
Count that mother fucking money, nigga
Holiday season, oh yes Chevy
You came to the right one, nigga

When they talk about that money, gotta mention me
Bitches want me now because they see me on tv
I got the whole cake but you can't get a piece
In my hustle coat I wear that shit up on my sleeve

Yeah I've in the trap, I've in the trap
Tryna double back, tryna double back
Ask my nigga Bo how I be in the kitchen
With the chickens ain't talking bout no freaking lickin'
I pulled up in that car you ain't ever seen
28, 36; like what that mean?
If you don't know the numbers you ain't never One second, man, I'm on the ph one with the plug

Cause I was in the trap, I was in the trap
This sound like the trap, this sound like the trap
Gotta keep it strapped, feel like I was trapped
Welcome to the trap, welcome to the trap

I swear to god, I put that shit on me
If you ain't from here, don't come here
If you don't hang there, don't bang there
Ain't no game here, welcome to the trap

It's what we do

Six-Hundred Benz with the limo tint
A penny for your thoughts and they don't give a cent
Money on your head, money well spent
And I don't even gotta be there when them shells spent
My nigga pimp about bout it, word to Master P
Got a hundred in the safe, and got the master key
And for this watch, I pay the ticket, it cost where you live
Versace frames in the coogi, I just do it big
