

At your worst, at your best
Stinky feet, hair in a mess
Always, always
Chocolate ice cream on your face
Blue ribbon smile or in last place
Always, always

In all of your odd ways
Your big and small ways
Straight and cross ways
Pink or blue
No matter what they say
No matter what you do
Any and all ways, I'm for you

And if you fell into a big black hole
And came out, squeezed out, infinitely small
You know you'd be my favourite singularity
Or if your time machine ran out of gas
And set your body to the future and your head to the past
That would be insane, but yeah, even that way

And I'm telling you always
Your big and small ways
Straight and cross ways
Red, yellow, pink or blue
No matter what they say
No matter what you do
Any and all ways, I'm for you

Love is blind, happy and free
Hearts don't have the eyes to see
All they do is tick and believe
But I hope you know just what I mean
There's no test, just do your thing
The best you you can be

So zip this problem in your fanny pack
Put in the pocket of your corduroy slacks
Whatever, it don't matter
'Cause not one thing will change this fact
I mean, do take baths, 'course do that
But always, whatever you do
Just remember always, I'm for you
