

Daydreaming

Chevy

Bum bum b-bum bum
Bum bum b-bum bum
Bum bum b-bum bum
Bum

Some nights I wake up thinking
Why am I feeling so blue (so blue)
Then I remember I'm still not
Over you

And everyone's so hasty
They say you're way too
Out of my league (my league)
But maybe I could start real slow
And make you fall for me

Baby I really like you
I'm wondering if you feel
The same too
Do you want me?
Do you feel me?
Do you even think about me?
Somebody please stop me
From daydreaming of you
