

Tryna figure out where to locate
The hottest spot for our next date
It seems like we've been everywhere
Nothing to do it's unfair
We've gone to the shops and amusement parks
Had boba and all the accoutrement
I'm scrolling yelp for the next big thing
Do you wanna go bowling?
Excuse me?

Darling can't you see
That I'm trying to find something exciting
For today I guess we could just stay
But then you look at me and say

Oh I've got an idea let's hang out at Ikea
We could plan our future home
Or eat Swedish meatballs
We could run around for hours
Like it's better homes and gardens
It don't matter what we do
Just as long as I'm with you

First we'll go to the restaurant
We can order whatever you want
Get some cake and mac n cheese
With a side of lingonberries then
We could stroll through the displays
Pretend it's like 500 days
But instead I'm here to stay

Oh darling can't you see
That whenever I'm with you it's exciting
So today let's make this our escape
1, 2, 3

Oh I've got an idea let's hang out at Ikea
We could plan our future home
Or eat Swedish meatballs
We could run around for hours
Like it's better homes and gardens
It don't matter what we do
Just as long as I'm with you

Oh oh
Hey yeh
Hey yeh
