Why does it feel like I'm going slow
Being held down by the whole world's tow
Oh I'm burning out

How to barely get by I'm still holding on
But I wonder why I give it my all
Oh I'm tumbling down
Oh what's the use now

Here I go again
Will I make it out
Should I fake it now
Will I know if it's the end
Oh what's the use now?
I should go now
