

I'm startin' to feel some sort of way
You give me goosebumps every day
And when you look at me and smile I wanna say
"I-I-I-I think you're okay"

Your stupid face makes me insane
My heart feels like it's trapped in cellophane
And every time I try to unwrap the pain
I-I-I-I feel so ashamed

Oh, but you don't know how I feel, mmm
It's like everyday I'm runnin' uphill
Oh, why can't I just spit it out and tell you right now
That you're the one I want out loud?

I guess I'll stop here and not hint at all
That you're the one I've fallen for
But if you ever think of me as anything more
I-I-I-I'll be here at your call
