

A Lifetime Or Two

Chiara

"A lifetime or two"

Most of the tie now, I'm doing fine now
You'd never know, someone walked out of my heart
And believe me if you could see me, you'd see I'm strong
Just look at this smile, no tears in my eyes
No one would dream that I'm dying inside

But I'll survive, and I'll go on
I'll find myself when the pain is gone
And I'll forgive and I'll forget you were my life
One way or another I'll get over you
It'll just take a lifetime or two

Two in the morning without any warning
I hear your voice but my heart's playing games with my mind
And it's crazy thinking that maybe
You're home again, memories oh, please, get out of my head
Cause lately I'm just hanging on by a thread

But I'll survive, and I'll go on
I'll find myself when the pain is gone
And I'll forgive and I'll forget you were my life
One way or another I'll get over you
It'll just take a lifetime or two

Maybe my dreams have all dallen through
And maybe I'll always be lost without you

But I'll survive, and I'll go on
I'll find myself when the pain is gone
And I'll forgive and I'll forget you were my life
One way or another I'll get over you
It'll just take a lifetime or two

In the morning without any warning
I find myself wanting you
