

Here I Am

Chiara

"Here I am"

Life was hard, life was broken
When the went out of this world
In my heart words unspoken
And promises made everyday

You saw the world down in Africa
Bessings and hurt, a thousand miles away

Here I am, I can't find you
Hera I stand, ith nothing to hold on to
Here I am, all alone now
But I want to know where you are

I was cold I was broken
When you came into my life
Stories told moments stolen
But memories stayed every day

Heaven seems high, high above the clouds
Thousands of eyes watching over me

Here I am, I can't find you
Hera I stand, ith nothing to hold on to
Here I am, all alone now
But I want to know where you are

You saw the world down in Africa
Bessings and hurt, a thousand miles away

Here I am, I can't find you
Hera I stand, ith nothing to hold on to
Here I am, all alone now
But I want to know where you now

Where are you now?
