

Sail Away

Chiara

"Sail away"

In my imagination, you're my destination
Calling out my name, as I go down and under
In this crying game

Though you never hear me, though you say you fear for me
I will think o you and all the higher things'll come true
In my dreams of you, so let us

Shine a light on a better day now, sail away sail away
And I'll be waiting here for ever near
Even if I'm the last remember
Shine a light on a better day now, sail away sail away
And if you're far astray and live the day
Go on out in the light I share for you

Someday I wil wake you, like the way I wanted to
In the morning grey over an endless sea
Won't you come with me, and let us

Shine a light on a better day now, sail away sail away
And I'll be waiting here for ever near
Even if I'm the last remember
Shine a light on a better day now, sail away sail away
And if you're far astray and live the day
Go on out in the light I share for you

When the walls are closing in
Like the rising moon, I'll be there for you

Shine a light on a better day now, sail away sail away
And I'll be waiting here for ever near
Even if I'm the last remember
Shine a light on a better day now, sail away sail away
And if you're far astray and live the day
Go on out in the light I share for you
