Daylight

Chicane

Is it daylight? I hardly ever notice
I hardly feel the sun and I never feel anyone
Is it daylight? I hardly ever notice
I hardly feel the sun and I never feel anyone

And if you could hold me now, oh baby Then we could go around again And if you could hold me now, oh baby Then we could go around again

Is it daylight? I hardly ever notice
I hardly feel the sun and I never feel anyone
Is it daylight? I hardly ever notice
I hardly feel the sun and I never feel anyone
