

Parallels

Chicano Batman

So much time on this road
Who you think paved it?
Not feeling the love
Don't forget who brought you in
Just a friendly reminder, oh

Just let it be
'Cause freedom ain't free
Don't say I didn't tell you
Now the light is burning up, we're out of touch
The road is unwinding

Spent a lot of time imagining the fights between us

The parallels, they never stop
Our sons were born, I know they're gonna be okay
They came in spring, they got their wings
They'll find their way through it all

I never trusted you, I always saw through you
Why don't you say that to my face? I didn't think so, huh
It could be that I'm tripping on this rope that keeps on pullin g me away from you
I'm a dragon breathing fire, angry every time I have a thought of you

But the parallels, they never stop
Our sons were born, I know they're gonna be okay
They came in spring, they got their wings
They'll find their way through it all
