

Pomegranate Tree

Chicano Batman

Light shinin' on pomegranate trees
Shinin' on you, shinin' on me
Making love and all things
With smiles on our faces and no one gets home
Oh yes that they continue to roam wherever they are

It was a good time, a place of plentiful food
Where to explore and smother our soul
But that season exists in my memory as
I gaze into the frame reflectin' my home
And my people that I long for

Waiting here on the west side

Waiting for time to pass
Waiting to hitch a ride on inspiration
A breeze of energy that will guide me to one
A place of peace, a place where love
Baseless, nurturing fruit in the desert
Baseless, nurturing fruit

Waiting here on the west side

Waiting for time to pass
Waiting to hitch a ride on inspiration
A breeze of energy that will guide me to one
A place of peace, a place where love
Baseless, nurturing fruit in the desert
Baseless, nurturing fruit

Baseless, nurturing fruit
Baseless, nurturing fruit
Baseless, nurturing fruit
Baseless, nurturing fruit
Baseless, nurturing fruit
Baseless, nurturing fruit
