

Run

Chicano Batman

This is me when I sit down
A new moon a new light
A new focal point of sight
Makes me feel all right

I'm not gonna lie
I need to reach the sky
But before I reach my high
My mind's eye has got to be free

And I walk, yes I breathe
And I pray, and I run, run, run

Yes I walk, and I breathe
Yes I pray, and I run, run, run

And I walk, yes I breathe
And I pray, and I run, run, run

Run, yes I'm on my way
I Run, yes I'm on my way

Now the time has come
To move my legs and run
I run I run I run I run
I need to run and run and run and run
And now I feel the energy of the universe
And I roll with it forever
I love you space and time
To put it simply I'm on my way

And now I'm elevating higher
My footsteps are finding a groove
All on their own

I'm communing with the fire
I'm free, my mind has shown

I've blazed its path
I've put aside my own wrath
I'm moving faster
My heart is stronger
The soul is brighter
I'm warm

I've blazed its path
I've put aside my own wrath
I'm finally at peace

I've blazed its path
I've put aside my own wrath
I'm moving faster
My heart is stronger
The soul is brighter
I'm warm

I've blazed its path

I've put aside my own wrath
I'm finally at peace
I'm finally at home
