

Stoned Soul Picnic

Chicano Batman

We had a Stoned Soul Picnic at the park
Nappy haired proud brown people
Singing in the dark

We had a Stoned Soul Picnic at the park
Barefoot breathing heavily as we run
Barefoot breathing heavily
Playing soccer in the sun
We had a Stoned Soul Picnic at the park

Smile, Smile, Smile on Beautiful people always smiling
Showing their teeth that Shine
Shine, Shine on
Like the sweat on her brow
Falling, kissing the earth

That shakes because it feels warm inside
Oh yes it moves us
Placing happiness in our souls
Placing happiness in our souls

That we can feel as we look into each others eyes
And there we get lost we dissappear like flies
Searching for the fruit that I'm so glad we've found
Rejoicing when we eat it

Yes we love its lovely sound
Taking us off the ground
Volcano explodes
Yes we love its lovely sound

Hummingbird moving fast
Sipping nectar from the flower
Love grows by the hour
Yes we love its lovely sound
Yes we love its lovely sound
We love its lovely sound
Yes we love its lovely sound

We had a Stoned Soul Picnic at the park
Nappy haired proud brown people
Singing in the dark
We had a Stoned Soul Picnic at the park
Barefoot breathing heavily as we run
Barefoot breathing heavily
Playing soccer in the sun
We had a Stoned Soul Picnic at the park
