

Been A While

Chiddy Bang

It's been a while since I seen you
It's been a while since I heard from you
It's been a while since I checked back in
And I ain't heard a word from you

It's been a while since I was in it
I hit it and then I pushed it to the limit
Shit, I wonder what you do now? Damn
Shit, I wonder who you do now?

My ex bitch, yeah she moved on
She bad and bougie like Grey Poupon
I can't say it, but you thought I'm superman?
I'm smarter than that, think I'm a stupid man?

New edition but I'm a veteran
I feel fresher than I have ever been
I fly places those niggas have never been
At the door, you gotta let them in

I feel like my niggas could do Letterman
I prefer tequila for my medicine
Stick to the script and watch it pan out
Now I got them reaching with their hands out

Touchdown, throw it in the end zone
I evacuated the friend zone
Now I'm getting ends though
Apparently all that matters, we like the Winslows

And every time the wind blows,
I just wonder where did my friends go?
I just wonder where did my ends go?
I just wonder where did my friends go?

It's been a while since I seen you
It's been a while since I heard from you
It's been a while since I checked back in
And I ain't heard a word from you

Stay down to it
In a circle so small they gotta come around to it
We was getting on day and night
And then we found music

In the studio, don't it got a nice sound to it?
I used to ride around the city in a brown Buick
T, I owe you, but I just didn't get around to it

I'd of mixed my emotions and I switched stains
I'd of swerved on those haters and I switched lanes

New edition but I'm a veteran
I feel fresher than I have ever been
I fly places them niggas have never been
At the door, you gotta let them in

I took my family out of deficit
We flying no matter what the weather is Moving up, Jeffersons
Piss greatness and shit excellence

Been a while since I seen you
It's been a while since I heard from you
It's been a while since I checked back in
And I ain't heard a word from you
