

Does It Hurt?

Chiddy Bang

(Yeah, uh, yeah)
Yeah, uh, uh

Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Scared to try it, well, does it hurt?
Yeah, wish you could put it in reverse
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Yeah, I wish that I knew at first
However I cannot put it in reverse
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt? (Yeah)
Does it hurt?

Does it hurt like a cut to the wound
Say it's nothin' like the summer in June
She said "Why'd you lie? I had a crush on you
When I thought you had one too but, see, I never assumed"
I had thoughts about you when I sat in my room
At the barber shop like "is it too soon?"
It's quite clear she far from translucent
Ask oneself is that an asset or a nuisance?
Wish she was more prudent, I had a clue then
Her attitude shit, she had a crib, you had to move in
I understand your perspective when holdin' on by a thread
But you lie in it whenever you make the bed
I had plans for us even though she showed me signs still Really thought I could see it but I was blind still
When I was with her I felt like she made the time still
But fuck it, I'm back to gettin' my mind ill

Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Scared to try it, well, does it hurt?
Yeah, wish you could put it in reverse
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Yeah, I wish that I knew at first
However I cannot put it in reverse
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt? (Yeah)

Does it hurt me at all if I try this here?
If I work this hard, I can buy this here
This grind don't stop 'cause the time don't stop
Ain't no reason them suckers couldn't make your mind go stomp
I had to contemplate and escape from the matrix
Success is a potion and I can taste it
Fuck 'em if they said you couldn't make it
I bet you they tell you congratulations
They wonder how I be coppin' shit

When I flew coach like Popovich
Even though I used to always finish last
In my business class, flew to Costa Rica on some proper shit
I think my wound healin', they gets the June feelin'
I walked up in this bitch lookin' like two million
Yeah, care less about how you feelin'
Doesn't hurt, I reply tellin' my wound healin'

Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Scared to try it, well, does it hurt?
Yeah, wish you could put it in reverse
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Yeah, I wish that I knew at first
However I cannot put it in reverse
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
Does it hurt?
