

Petty

Chief Keef

(Zaytoven...)

I know I be fucking hoes
You need me, let me know
It's cool if you let me go
I know I be lying, but now
Talking 'bout that bitch from Tokyo
She don't even know me though
Told you I'm working
You don't believe me, petty
You petty, you petty
You don't believe me, you petty
You petty, you petty
You don't believe me, you petty
You petty, you petty
You don't believe me, you petty

Ring ring, blowing up my phone
Told you I'm working, know you heard me
You gon' make me time to throwback Thursday (Ha)
Laying 'em off, on this WCW, it's Thursday ha
Ima call you back, my cup, then water it down
Maybe I'm watering down
All my motherfucker rings moving, like a water fountain
Momma said I sip that cup too fast, I need to slow it down
Imma need an umbrella for accusations to stop
Falling down, down
I ain't with the bitch I'm in the stu working, how you sound
Don't go there right now
Ima block you from callin' my line
Talking about the shit that you heard to the vine

I know I be fucking hoes
You need me, let me know
It's cool if you let me go
I know I be lying, but now
Talking 'bout that bitch from Tokyo
She don't even know me though
Told you I'm working
You don't believe me, petty
You petty, you petty
You don't believe me, you petty
You petty, you petty
You don't believe me, you petty
You petty, you petty
You don't believe me, you petty
