CHIKA

When patience grow longer with locs in my hair
I'm really taking it there
Believe me I'm more sane than I can appear
'Xcept I ain't got no fears

I'm at the finish line, no one other power diminish mine
I just been snackin' on every taste, I'ma devour for real this time
I'ma grow harder than everyone, I'ma do all that they never done
I been on this mission since I was a kid, so that record is broken, but let it run
My wings have been clipped, but just let me fly, I know it be hard, but just let me try
I don't see nobody except for me, so I am the greatest, I can't deny
And I don't spit nothing that ain't the truth, when all these rappers depend on lies
When all the girlies get in the booth and brag about everything they can buy
And talk about everyone they can fuck, their era is fading, I wish 'em luck
I'm ready for music that me feel, and being attractive just ain't enough
I'm put on this Earth to communicate, forgive me if I tend to regulate
I don't really care who I may offend, I know I got time, but I never wait, I'll never wait

When patience grow longer with locs in my hair
