CHIKA

I am what I am
And that shit work perfect, man it's all but certain
I'll put on a show until they drop the curtain
Addicted to working, I'm writing the plan
Dose it in grams, the noise of my critics get filtered to spam
The poison of business conflict with my brand
But without the crazy, my daily is bland
I love when I'm manic yeah, try not to panic
Walls of my head are all quilted and padded
Words in my brain get translated through static
A whole 'nother language, you'd think I'm Hispanic
¿Qué pasa my nigga? This shit is awesome my nigga
It's really a toss-up, I figured if everybody in the world dream of fame
Everybody in the world is insane
I just wear it better
Gifted at keeping my head up
I don't want beef, I want cheddar
Sleeping on me is a setup
I guarantee that no one on my level
Chips on my shoulders feed angels and devils
Revving my engine, my foot on the pedal
I'm heating my kettle, expanding my medals, refusing to settle
Ay

Don't ask me no questions, just know that I am
Don't ask how I do it, just know that I can
Don't give me no budget, just run me the cash
And fuck a deposit, I want it in hand
Not asking permission, I'm making demands
I may be a woman but bitch I'm the man
I'm already great, I'm not waiting on flowers, that shit is a scam
Consider my ego, my line in the sand
Won't sit at your table, at this point I'm willing to stand

At least for a little bit
I just be defying authority for the thrill of it
Got a lotta time, I should kill a bit
Riddle this, sipping while I'm waiting on my pill to hit
I'm really onto something, I'm feeling so magnificent
I got superpowers, I'm ill and I'm omnipotent
Anyone with questions, they lost and they real ignorant
How else can I put it? You know that I'm built different
Get into the zone and you know what it is, go time
Who else could fuck with the kid? No one
Face it, it is what it is, I'm a gold mine
From that Bama was born and was bred, roll tide
I was a legend before I was famous
Everyone saw it back when I was nameless
Ain't even ask, you could say that I'm blameless
But even so I'm so damn sick I'm contagious, I'm ageless

Don't ask me no questions, just know that I am
Don't ask how I do it, just know that I can
Don't give me no budget, just run me the cash
And fuck a deposit, I want it in hand
Not asking permission, I'm making demands
I may be a woman but bitch I'm the man

I'm already great, I'm not waiting on flowers, that shit is a scam
Consider my ego, my line in the sand
Won't sit at your table, at this point I'm willing to stand

I'm here to get all my bands, we sewn from different strands
Future is in the right hands, sit back and watch where it lands
I'll take it far as I can, break expectations for sure
Saw where I'm headed and ran, trust me I know where to go

Don't ask me no questions, just know that I am
Don't ask how I do it, just know that I can
Don't give me no budget, just run me the cash
And fuck a deposit, I want it in hand
Not asking permission, I'm making demands
I may be a woman but bitch I'm the man
I'm already great, I'm not waiting on flowers, that shit is a scam
Consider my ego, my line in the sand
Won't sit at your table, at this point I'm willing to stand
