Boy, I spend my time daydreamin' about us
I don't want your love, I just need your touch, yeah
Yeah, I wanna feel but I ain't tryna trust
Know you puts it down so I'm tryna give it up when you want it
I can quench your thirst, babe
Mean that in the worst way
Make a nigga feel like it's his birthday
I don't fuck around, I never slack
But if you really want it then I gotta get it back

Nobody gotta know 'bout it
We can keep it extra tight
Don't need my soul crowded
Just my throne mounted, boy if only for the night

Please don't get ahead of it
I'm here for the benefits
Roll it up and we can catch a vibe
I just need a lover and a friend to pass the time
A bed to crash tonight

This ain't nothin' special, I came for that act right
Got my spend the night bag, you know I always pack light
Ain't no strings attached, my nigga, fuck it, I'll be that type
Pull up inconspicuous make love like it's our last night, yeah
Ain't no shame 'cause you got needs and so do I
I'm ironically on time, you platonically inside
And we'll forget this ever happened, unimportant by design
'Til you want another taste, give me the look, I know that sign

Nobody gotta know 'bout it
We can keep it extra tight
Don't need my soul crowded
Just my throne mounted, boy if only for the night

Please don't get ahead of it
I'm here for the benefits
Roll it up and we can catch a vibe
I just need a lover and a friend to pass the time
A bed to crash tonight

I ain't here for love, so promise not to fall for me
Catch yourself frustrated, then save it, and give it all to me
Know I like that anger, that danger, my baby, brawl with me
Doctor, doctor, know bout that head, got that lobotomy
Stay with that medicinal, call you like the pharmacy
Faded out my mind, he tradin' ganja for that honesty
Ask me how his number saved and make me say it audibly
Let's not take it too deep, the sex we keep, is novelty

Boy, I spend my time daydreamin' about us
I don't want your love, I just need your touch, yeah
Yeah, I wanna feel but I ain't tryna trust
Know you puts it down so I'm tryna give it up when you want it
I can quench your thirst, babe
Mean that in the worst way
Make a nigga feel like it's his birthday

I don't fuck around, I never slack
But if you really want it then I gotta get it back

Nobody gotta know 'bout it
We can keep it extra tight
Don't need my soul crowded
Just my throne mounted, boy if only for the night

Please don't get ahead of it
I'm here for the benefits
Roll it up and we can catch a vibe
I just need a lover and a friend to pass the time
A bed to crash tonight
