

NIGHT 4

CHIKA

Shutting down night four in the stu
Tryna plot out what I'm 'bout to do
'Cause before I touch the booth
I gotta know that this is worth it
So if you hearing this, we found a way to work it
This that new shit, this that perfect, that make you move shit
When you heard this, no clowning, we're here to disrupt the circus
Veiled through the surface, that'll connect the circuits
Dream of making history, screaming fuck the industry

The concept of a god is such a mystery
That done failed to realize it's right in front of you, dog
I think it's funny, listen, I can't even front on you, dog
'Cause I done did all that I claimed that I was gonna do, dog
Commit to this shit or get off the pot
I'm existing in a prophecy, obviously I ain't scared to be dropped
Because y'all know better, who can flow better?
Who is cold as me with no sweater?
Keep your silver, I'll be [?] out of gold leather

Took a step outside, I can't believe how good my view is
I deserve this life, I can't be out here fruitless
Let 'em talk, my haters all lie broke and clueless
Fuck a crown, just know my reign is ruthless

Tell me who observing the shit that I done done
I financed the deal with just lyrics that I sung
Walked into the label and told them what's gon' come
Nothing more iconic since Bidi the Bom Bom
(Bom-bom-bee-dah) I'm gon' eat up
Spent two years on pause on this album, I'm all teed up
Catch us as the Grammys and know that we gon' clean up
After this I won't even be kicking my own feet up
We making a movie, so everyone gon' see us
We gon' play it back in ten years in my home theater
Remembering the times that we sat around all beat up
Knowing that this music forever was gon' feed us
I'm already certain we did it because
We out here building with cause
None of these n*ggas is dope, none of these bitches is raw
Look I feel that shit down to my core, yeah
And it's only night four, night four

Took a step outside, I can't believe how good my view is
I deserve this life, I can't be out here fruitless
Let 'em talk, my haters all lie broke and clueless
Fuck a crown, just know my reign is ruthless
Took a step outside, I can't believe how good my view is
I deserve this life, I can't be out here fruitless
Let 'em talk, my haters all lie broke and clueless
Fuck a crown, just know my reign is ruthless, oh yeah
