

No Squares

CHIKA

Yeah

Look, tell 'em cut my motherfuckin' mic up
You can leave the lights up
Just so everybody in the room can keep they eyes up
Ima drop a banger just so I can get my price up Damn, I gotta wise up if I wanna rise up
If I'm really that bitch
If I'm far from average
These niggas is mad rich, but I can make 'em richer
And here's the greater picture, that's when it starts to hit'cha, it ain't about the journey, it's about who take it with'cha Cause I ain't tryna get into no issue with no underhand deals
Find out that you stealing to spend on your man wheels
That you really living all up in the damn hills while I'm out in Alab ama still havin' to plan meals Cause checks don't come as often as they used to Damn, this independent life gon' take some getting used to Got my idols handing me the crown, they like "it suits you"
Only ones that matter they can hit me on my Bluetooth, you knew

Look, no squares in my circle
No squares at all (ain't no squares with'cha, ain't no, ain't no, yea h yeah)
No squares in my circle
No squares at all (ain't no squares with'cha, ain't no, ain't no, yea
h yeah)

Look, milly rock
Might as well make my whole city rock Know that I'm able to shake up the table, I make 'em more pussy than city cops
Stakes on the jet, gon' be placing a bet, because now they all see wh at'chu really got
I got a feeling we goin' up (woah)
I'm 'bouta be at the tippy top
I keep 'em all on they tippy toes
I am not one of these pretty hoes Bitches with ass, I'll certainly gas, so we gon' see just how far pre tty goes
I'm rad and I'm gold and I'm real
I ask that you only adjust it with Cheerios Where in the fuck did she come from, niggas is scrambling, not even S iri knows
Bitch, I been down
I just kept my chin down
Worked to put myself up in a spot where I can win now
No one ever thought I'd be in places that I'm in now Lookin' back at teachers that were hating and I grin now
Keep my circle small because them others are excessive
And when they see us all, they thinking "shit, that's mad impressive"
I'm 'bouta make a name, make these people go insane

Cause you know my favorite game always chess, never checkers, yeah
