PRODIGY

CHIKA

Touched down in a new town
I already feel that it's eyes on me
I'm getting looked up down with these big frowns
They already gone by the size of me
I don't really give two fucks, put my deuce up
I will not live in apology
I wish you lose love but truly you suck
Go and make waves for a prodigy

Nobody do it better than me, not incredibly
I do this shit competitively, inevitably
These niggas falling silent when I walk up in the building
Worry about their future like I'm here to snatch their children
Fuck that line was brilliant
How I'm not already in the millions?
Am I not the picture of resilience?
Why they test my patience?
Hyping all this lame shit
No one got a brain, they just be liking all the same shit
Is this what the fuck I meant on "INDUSTRY GAMES", bitch?
I'm convinced that nobody is speaking my language
I'm a goody ass so listen close when I say this
After every murder, know my steel still stainless
I can make a dope fiend go cocaine-less
'Cause everything I wrote gon' smoke so dangerous
I can make a Einstein hoe feel brainless
But look on the bright side, hope yield changes
I'ma get it started, please give me a pardon
Cause this the type of beat that get the whole crowd marching
Time to shut it down, we make the whole town spartan
I'm from outer space so all my homegirls martian
It's 'bout to get critical, this moment is pivotal
Here to feed the streets that say my influence unbillable
We gon' make it grimy, devil get behind me
Told you I'm the best, I done said it with my chest
So for real, nobody try me

Touched down in a new town
I already feel that it's eyes on me
I'm getting looked up down with these big frowns
They already gone by the size of me
I don't really give two fucks, put my deuce up
I will not live in apology
I wish you lose love but truly you suck
Go and make waves for a prodigy

And I say, one for the money and two for the love
We the new era so fuck whoever may feel they above
Live in delusion, that's an illusion, it's absent of drugs
Keep it together, don't act like you didn't know what it was
I'm on a whole nother planet
I'm bout to show you, goddammit
This wouldn't work if we planned it
Meaning you won't understand it
We at the rings like it's Saturn
This feel like splitting an atom
We've gotten bored with the pattern

So now we up and we at 'em
Watch out for my evolution
Fuck around and start a revolution
I am more than a being, bitch, I'm an institution
If I gotta reiterate, I swear I'ma lose it
It's my world and I'm generous and that [?]
How obnoxious, she ain't got a conscience
She's okay with being a little absurd and pompous
That's because I kill it and stick around just to haunt it
Waiting on my thank you, be grateful that I would even let you watch it

Touched down in a new town
I already feel that it's eyes on me
I'm getting looked up down with these big frowns
They already gone by the size of me
I don't really give two fucks, put my deuce up
I will not live in apology
I wish you lose love but truly you suck
Go and make waves for a prodigy

Gonna catch a breath for a second
Look at your neighbor and check him
We 'bout to march, so if you not get to stepping
I done told you who I am, bitch
I'm a force to be reckoned with
I think niggas just be mad because my voice is so decadent
I'm setting a precedent, no mistakes and no accident
We ignoring the standard set 'cause our lowest is passionate
This alone is a classic hit
I'm a verb amongst adjectives
If the industry full of shit
Then my words is a laxative
I'm a maniac on these beats
I'm insane and it's not discreet
I'm enraged because y'all ain't see it
I'm spraying on every street
Entertaining no whack opinion
Who's saying we not elite?
I'm over Balenciaga's, I'm changing into my cleats
It's go time
Nigga, it's show time
I ain't calming down until this place is a ghost town
Tired of the faking, thought we bringing back Motown
No sparing this go 'round
I'm taking no prisoners, so prepare for a showdown

Touched down in a new town
I already feel that it's eyes on me
I'm getting looked up down with these big frowns
They already gone by the size of me
I don't really give two fucks, put my deuce up
I will not live in apology
I wish you lose love but truly you suck
Go and make waves for a prodigy (Nobody do it better)
