

Want Me

CHIKA

I'm high I don't know what I might do
Holy shit I think I like you
This ain't something I can fight through
And I don't want to cause I want you
Just for me, just for me

Yeah I want you just for me and baby that's the problem
Out of a million plays you tell me you don't even want them
Maybe when you think of me, you'll see me as an option
And if you don't then baby I'm just talking
The way you walking I get this feeling in my chest I can't disguise, mama
I know we grown but you still give me butterflies, mama
My body freezes when you look into my eyes, wanna
See where we'll go from here
We'll take it to the skies
Because I'm down for anything and everything

I'm prepared. Maybe we can stay as friends
Maybe I can pull your hair
Ain't no point in faking like it ain't no tension girl its there
You can play oblivious but baby we are both aware
Asked you would give it all to me under the circumstances
That you are feeling awfully ready for giving chances
Find your pride and be an independent just like Chance is

Typically two people are required for these dances
We're playing cat and mouse
So listen imma speak up
Cause it's been weighing heavy on my chest like double D cups
Just throw it at me, I think I can take it to the end zone
But right now I'm just focused on gettin out of the friend zone

Dude Holy Shit I think I like you
This ain't something I can fight through
And I don't want to cause I want you just for me, just for me
Tell me do I entice you
Keep it short just like a haiku
Cause it ain't nothing I can write you
Say I want you, let me know if you want me, want me

And you ain't gotta tell me girl, cause I already know this
I peep the way you look at me though you don't think I notice
Get chills when I'm around you, so I think that you the coldest
And I bet your flower bomb and I'm ain't talking lotus, huh
Man, word to Ali I'm with you all day
They say that love is work but babygirl with you is all play
You mean its hell but when you sweet is when I wanna partake
And every piece of you, girl let me speak my peace to you
At night is when I dream of you, walking in my room like baby take me now
You playing Luther Vandross I'm playing take you down
You say I flow just like the ocean, but I'm trying to drown inside of you
I put aside my pride for you and break you down
You know I'm known for killing boundaries girl
If anybody meant to be, you know we bound to be, girl
We're fighting fate and we pretending we don't know it
But funny thing bout destiny, nobody can control it
Is autopilot

My heart is flying with no plans of return
The sun is jealous of the heat that's from the fire we burn
And if we ever see an end that's just the lesson we learned
We can go back to being friends with all the blessings we earned
Look, I'll take a gamble if you'll be my lucky charm
I admit I would be flexing if I had you on my arm
And if you ever doubt, one thing I know is true
If I could be with anyone, I know it would be you

I don't know what I might do
Holy Shit I think I like you
This ain't something I can fight through
I don't want to cause I want you just for me, just for me
Tell me do I entice you, Keep it short just like a haiku
Cause it ain't nothing I could write you to say I want you
Let me know if you want me, want me

Girl do you want me
Girl do you want me
