

Forever

Chikinki

Streets softly murmur, soft as forever sleeps tonight
my words lie open, words are spoken, my delight
Too clear, two years, forever part of me

The summer beckons and some might reckon more than this
This love grown strong
Loves more the longer it exists
Holds true, Hold you forever part of me

Streets softly murmur, soft as forever sleeps tonight
Too clear, two years, forever part of me
