

Let It Go

Chikinki

I know that you feel mad, well we all know
Thought you might be crazy, now we know so
Could be, that you've been taken over by something but its okay really
Yeah, we all know
Its alright now wouldn't anybody do the same if they were you

What you've got, nothing but fire and spikes to hold it
Hold it tight, fasten it down but don't withhold it
I can see its not right and don't you know it
So all your fussing and fighting's just for show
Its all alright though wouldn't anybody do the same if they were you

Let it go, let it go
There is nothing to see here
Turn around, walk away
Let it go and you'll see clear
Let it go, let it go
There is nothing to see here
Turn around, walk away
Let it go and you'll see clear

Well you know nothing else makes you feel as you do now
Chews you up every time it gets to you somehow
Everything would be fine if leaving was easy
Well, it is. Let it all go and you will be free, see
When its like that wouldn't anybody do the same if they were you

Let it go, let it go
There is nothing to see here
Turn around, walk away
Let it go and you'll see clear
Let it go, let it go
There is nothing to see here
Turn around, walk away
Let it go and you'll see clear
When its like that wouldn't anybody do the same if they were you

Let it go, let it go
There is nothing to see here
Turn around, walk away
Let it go and you'll see clear
Let it go, let it go
There is nothing to see here
Turn around, walk away
Let it go and you'll see clear
