

Loveless

Children Collide

[Verse 1]

When your time has come and gone, when your final race is won
When the flowers kiss the trees, when the king is on his knees
When your eyes don't speak the truth and denial is your muse
When your life follows a plan, inconvenience is banned

[Chorus]

You're loveless, it's okay you've planned it well
You will be happy to know that I've moved on as well
You're loveless, it's okay you've planned it well
You will be happy to know that I've moved on as well

[Verse 2]

When a lion has it's teeth and the sword rest in its sheath
When the liar plays the fool and the fool makes every rule

[Chorus]

You're loveless, it's okay you've planned it well
You will be happy to know that I've moved on as well
You're loveless, it's okay you've planned it well
It's seamless, [?]

[Verse 3]

On your own with every one, know a place to call the sun
There's a feeling in your bones, you just might end up alone
When you're just so self assured, now you're rotting at the cor e
When you're challenged by the truth, find some friends who'll l ie to you

[Chorus]

You're loveless, it's okay you've planned it well
I only dreamed now of times [?]
You're loveless, it's okay you've planned it well
It's seamless, [?]
