

Wombat (Interlude)

ChillinIT

Hahahahahahahahahahaha

Batski, you motherfucker (Family Ties, album three)

You motherfucker, I've missed you for so long, bro

Bro it was only two days ago we were touring together on that much drugs bro

Now we're both sober, like, what the fuck

I'm glad you're happy bro and show em why you're the best, ready?

Yeah

I'm with Chill, Fortay, Brock, [?] and Tala'

There's so much hype on the stage, you would think it's Smack and we're battling

Playing back to back shows even though I'll be scattered

And I'd get so hammered tryna punch on with Chillinit's managers

Sorry loopy, yeah the Bat was acting embarrassing

Up and down popping caps, on top of the valium

Flying state to state, I can't wait to get back to travelling

That shit was fatter than Mr Wrighty trying to clash with us

The arrogance cause we been the best with defeating emcees

They get shot but I shell em, they're getting PTSD

Blessed by Jesus so the demons, they can't even tempt me

Now they're seething when they see me, at the peak of envy

Don't test me cause you know how the fuck it goes down

Every city we go to, you know we shut the show down

No, go ahead - drop the album and let the fans get hype

420Fam till I die, nothing stronger than them family ties

I stand for the respect

So raise your fuckin' hands if you got family til death

My broski on the right, Samuel on the left

My buddha in the back, I tour around the map and lay the motherfuckin-urgh

All these rappers built feathers like they Donal Duck

Like money being [?], they Donald Trump

If I shoot, might he duck? Rrrgh, hockey puck

How the fuck you rocked the show if you don't rock it up?

You soft cunt, Batski and the fam to me

Batski just the fuckin' bat, he be the man to me

And I've been man enough to say that that's the family

So I don't call him fuckin' Wombat, that's just Samuel P, my fuckin'

G

I stand for the respect

So raise your fuckin' hands if you got family til death

My buddha in the back, I tour around the map and lay the motherfuckin-urgh

I stand for the respect

So raise your fuckin' hands if you got family til death

My buddha in the back, I tour around the map and lay the motherfuckin-

urgh
